Dear Kurt:

I am sorry to keep bothering you concerning the above-named individual, but we still have not heard from you with any response in over a year. We have written several times related to the individual and must have the final outcome of the legal action which took place. This will then close our file and give us all the documentation necessary for refusing registration should he attempt it in some other location.

We really feel we must protect the youth and do not feel that Mr. Montoya should ever be a leader with the organization.

Let us know if we may be of help in any other way.

Dear Paul:

You are certainly no bother when it comes to the protection of youth in our program, you merely share our concerns. Our records indicate we have forwarded the newspaper article concerning the probation of DANIEL MONTOYA. Sorry if it didn't make it to your office. We have enclosed a copy of the article to be included in your file.

Paul, if you need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

A former Mormon missionary and Boy Scout leader who pleaded guilty last year to molesting two boys has been ordered to spend one year in a residential behavioral treatment program. Daniel Montoya, 27, was sentenced to eight years in prison by Long Beach Superior Court Judge Sheila Pokras, in lieu of pending the sentence and the three years' probation and the in-patient treatment, court records show. He also was ordered to participate in psychotherapy sessions at least once a week for two years by Pokras, who handed down the sentence earlier this month. Montoya pleaded guilty to two of nine sex counts last November in a pretrial agreement with the district attorney's office. Under the agreement, the remaining seven counts would be dropped at the time of sentencing. Originally, he was charged with molesting three boys, ages 9, 11 and 12 last summer. The boys were members of Jesus church, the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints on Elm Street, Long Beach. He allegedly admitted to police that he fondled the boys.

Thank you for your letter of September 17, to Mr. David Park, concerning the above-named individual. This information is certainly most helpful and will enable us to establish a file for refusal of future registration attempts.

We are enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet which we would like to have completed so that we will be able to identify Mr. Montoya should he try to register in some other location.

We would also ask that you delete Mr. Montoya from your registration records. You are an "on-line" council and the deletion in your council office would also delete him from the national registration records.

Please keep us informed as further legal action takes place. This will be most important to us in having a complete case and enough information for refusal of registration attempts anywhere in the country.

CONF014007

Accused of fondling three boys, police say

By Helen Guthrie Smith
Staff writer

Long Beach police have arrested a 26-year-old Mormon church Boy Scout leader, who is accused of fondling three boys.

Daniel Montoya, leader of a "Blazer" troop of boys aged 11 and 12, was arrested at 7 p.m. Monday at his home, at 3520 Falcon Ave., and booked on charges of lewd and lascivious acts with a child under 14, according to Detective Mike Stovall of the police department's Sexually Exploited Children's Unit.

Police are expected to ask the district attorney's office today to file molestation charges against Montoya.

Montoya was being held Tuesday on $5,000 bail.

Stovall said the alleged victims are aged 12, 11 and 9.

He said the oldest boy was 11 when he was allegedly molested July 30 outside an A & W Root Beer stand at Cedar Avenue and Pacific Coast Highway.

He said the boy had just ordered some food about 3 p.m. when a man approached him and "tried to befriend him."

Stovall said the boy told police the man fondled him, then gave him a slip of paper with his name, address and phone number on it. The boy said the man told him "maybe we can be pen pals and maybe get together and go to the beach."

Stovall said the boy took the slip of paper home and showed it to his mother, who called police.

Montoya, he said, was working at a nearby furniture store at the time, but has since taken a job at Delta Elevator Co. in Paramount.

He said the incident was being investigated when a social worker from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, at 3701 Elm St., notified police that "there might possibly be some sexual molestation going on with Daniel and some of the boys in his troop."

"We interviewed those boys and found they were accusing him of molesting them on previous occasions," he said, adding, "So far, the accusations by the boys have been limited to fondling only."

Stovall said the alleged incidents with the other two boys took place "within the last two months."

He said one of the boys was in Montoya's troop and the other was a Cub Scout who "was included in a lot of the activities" with Montoya's Boy Scout troop.

He said "these three are the only ones we know of."
